

The Journal of The Mammillaria Society

Volume 54
Number 3
August 2014

Contents

Editorial	63
Correction to May 2014 issue by Peter Brandon and Bill Maddams	64
More thoughts on the Ancistracanthae of Alamos District, Sonora by Bill Maddams	64
The Middle West of Mexico – a little known area for Mammillaria . Part 2. The attractive Northern continuation of M. voburnensis by Thomas Linzen (English translation Eberhard Lutz)	66
Mammillaria Society Event June 15th 2014 by Peter Batterham	77
Mammillaria chatter No. 10: Mammillaria x bosshardtii by Bill Maddams	79
No. 11: Coryphantha hintonii 'geofreyii' KKR813 by Malcolm Newton	79
Introduction to the 2013 Mammillaria Society Accounts and Accounts by Al Laius	80
Our New Website by Chris Davis	82
Richard Bradley's spiny Melon-Thistle – Mammillaria mammillaris by G. D. Rowley	83

Contents are continued on the inside back cover

Front cover: Mammillaria alamensis Lau 1401. A plant, from the collection of the late Bob Stanley now in the collection of Bill Maddams, and is uncommon in cultivation. It features in the article on page 64 on the Ancistracanthae of Alamos District, Sonora.

SSN 0464-8072

Website: <http://mammillaria.net/>